NOTES

1. If you consider that any of the conditions subject to which this consent is granted, or that the period specified in the final paragraph of this consent, is unreasonable, you may, by virtue of Section 91 of The Water Resources Act 1991, appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment.

2. The procedure for appealing is governed by the Control of Pollution (Consents for Discharges etc) (Secretary of State Functions) Regulations 1989 (1989 S. I. No. 1151), to which anyone wishing to appeal should refer. Notice of appeal, together with a statement of the grounds of appeal, must be given in writing to the

   Secretary of State
   Department of the Environment
   Water Environment A Division
   Room A404, Romney House
   43 Marsham Street
   London SW1P 3PY

   within three months of notification of the Authority's decision.

3. Any contravention of the conditions subject to which this consent is granted is an offence under the Act and will render the discharger liable to prosecution by the Authority and by any other person.

4. This consent is in respect of water quality considerations only and does not relate to land drainage or other requirements. A consent under the Land Drainage Byelaws may also be required.

5. The granting of Consent under Schedule 10 of the Water Resources Act 1991 does not give any right or permission to discharge to a watercourse where land is not owned by the holder of the Consent.
