Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice

The following notice gives notice of the variation of an environmental permit.

Following the recent clarification by the Environment Agency that served gilts should be counted as sows and not served gilts should be counted as production pigs for the purposes of calculating stock numbers, the permit holder has confirmed that there are gilts >30kg reared at the installation that haven't been included in either the permitted >30kg production pig places and/or sow places.

An assessment of the effect of this increase to overall ammonia emissions from the installation indicates the increase of emissions will be less than 10%.

Another pig finishing house has been erected within the permit boundary to reduce the stocking density in the existing finishing accommodation. It is fully slatted, automatically controlled naturally ventilated (ACNV) and has enough storage underneath the slats for six months slurry storage capacity.

The holding pits are emptied by vacuum tankers from either end of the building to prevent bridging and crust forming.

The remainder of the site remains unchanged from the original permit application.

The schedules specify the changes made to the original permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
