Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation of an environmental permit.

- Amendments have been made to the permit holders. The number of permit holders (partnership) has been amended to a single permit holder (individual).
- We also updated the permit to include the Fire prevention condition for activities that involve the storage of combustible waste material. The operator was not required to provide a Fire Prevention Plan as part of this admin variation application.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
